

Notification to Bank of Ireland Student Credit Card Customers

We would like to advise Student Credit Card Customers of change to Terms and Conditions which will come into effect on the 31 March 2017.

Clause	Old clause	New clause
28	d) (i) You agree that you will no longer be entitled to the features specific to the Student Credit Card Account on leaving fulltime third level education.	(d) (i) You agree that you will no longer be entitled to the features specific to the Student Credit Card Account on leaving fulltime third level education. We may allow you to have Student Credit Card Account features after you leave fulltime third level education. We are not obliged to do this but if we do, we will tell you when you are no longer entitled to these features.

Whilst we very much value your custom and hope you will keep your account with us, if you do not wish to accept these changes to your terms and conditions you can close your account any time before the effective date. However, before you can do this you must first pay us any money, interest, fees, charges or Government Duty that you owe in connection with your Account.

A copy of this press notice and the updated versions of the terms and conditions are available on www.bankofireland.com.
