Important Information

Pre-existing Medical Conditions

The following exclusions shall apply to Section B, Medical & Other Expenses and Section C, Cancellation & Curtailment Charges.

The Insured Person is not covered for any of the following Pre-Existing Medical Conditions;

- a. any medical condition of which they have been informed or made aware of or for which they have received treatment at a hospital, clinic, or doctor's surgery (including repeat prescriptions and the like) in the twelve months before they booked their Insured Journey;
- b. if they are suffering from a heart related condition and/or hypertension for which ongoing medication is prescribed or have ever had a heart related operation or a stroke, or arterial disease, kidney disease, malignant disease (cancer), lung or respiratory disease (excluding controlled asthma unless they have received in-patient hospital treatment within the last twelve months), motor-neurone disease, Parkinson's disease or Alzheimer's disease; or

c. any terminal illness which has been diagnosed.

Further, this insurance does not provide cover if at the time of booking the Insured Journey, the person whose condition gives rise to a claim is either:

- i. on a hospital waiting list for treatment or investigation or awaiting the results of medical tests; or
- ii. travelling contrary to medical advice or specifically to obtain medical treatment; or
- iii. expected to give birth during the Insured Journey or within two months of date arriving home; or
- iv. requires medication or treatment which they know, at the start of the Insured Journey, will be needed while outside the Republic of Ireland.

How we use Personal Information

For full details on How We Use Personal Information please visit www.aig.ie/privacy-policy.

Law and Jurisdiction

This contract will be governed by the laws of the Republic of Ireland whose courts alone shall have jurisdiction.

Remuneration and Commission

Bank of Ireland arrange and provide this cover to you as part of your card membership and there is no additional charge to you for doing this. Bank of Ireland does not receive any remuneration or commission from the Insurer for arranging this policy.

Claims Evidence

The Insured Person must provide at their own expense any evidence in support of a claim. An Insured Person must undergo as many medical examinations in connection with any claim as the Insurer may require at the Insured Person's own expense.

Claims Notification

The Insured Person must tell the AIG Claims Services (see page 23) as soon as possible of any potential claim. Where the Insured Person does not comply with any obligation to act in a certain way specified in this certificate of insurance, this may prejudice their claim under this insurance.

Medical Emergencies

The Medical Emergency Assistance Company, AIG Assistance Services, will provide immediate help if you are ill, injured or die outside the Republic of Ireland. They provide a 24-hour emergency service 365 days a year. The contact details are as follows:

Phone: +44 (0) 1273 771 909

Email: uk.assistance@travelguard.com

Please have the following information available when you contact AIG Assistance Services so that your case can be dealt with swiftly and efficiently:

- ▶ Your name and address;
- ▶ Your contact phone number abroad;
- ▶ Your credit card number (required for cover validation purposes); and
- ▶ The name, address and contact phone number of your GP.

Please note: This is not a private medical insurance. If you go into hospital abroad and you are likely to be kept as an inpatient for more than 24 hours or if your outpatient treatment is likely to cost more than €700, someone must contact AIG Assistance Services for you immediately. If they do not, we may provide no cover or we may reduce the amount we pay for medical expenses.

If you have to return to the Republic of Ireland under section C (Cutting your trip short) or section B1 (Medical and other expenses outside of the Republic of Ireland) AIG Assistance Services must authorise this. If they do not, we may provide no cover or we may reduce the amount we pay for your return to the Republic of Ireland.

Returning Early to the Republic of Ireland

If the Insured Person has to return to the Republic of Ireland under Section B (Medical & Other Expenses) or Section C (Cancellation & Curtailment Charges) they must obtain prior consent by contacting AIG Assistance Services. Failure to do so may invalidate their claim.

Economic Sanctions

The Insurer shall not be deemed to provide cover and the Insurer shall not be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit hereunder to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose the Insurer, its parent company or its ultimate controlling entity to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union or the United States of America.

Territorial Limits

Worldwide (subject to Economic Sanctions above and General Exclusion j).

Warranty

The insurance provided by this certificate of insurance is subject to the warranty that the Insured Person will not book or commence any Insured Journey contrary to medical advice or to obtain medical treatment or after a terminal prognosis has been made.

General Definitions

The following words have the same meaning wherever they appear in this certificate of insurance and are shown with an initial capital letter.

Accident

Accident means a sudden and unexpected event caused by violent, external and visible means which results in Bodily Injury to an Insured Person and includes exposure to severe weather conditions resulting from a mishap to a conveyance in which the Insured Person is travelling.

Bodily Injury

Bodily injury means accidental bodily injury which:

1. Is sustained by the Insured Person during the period of an Insured Journey;
2. Is caused by an Accident; and
3. Solely and independently of any other cause except illness directly resulting from medical or surgical treatment rendered necessary by such injury, occasions the death or Permanent Disablement of the Insured Person within twenty four calendar months from the date of the Accident by which such injury is caused.

Curtailment or Curtailed

The cutting short of an Insured Journey once an Insured Person has departed from the Republic of Ireland, for any of the reasons outlined in Section C (Cancellation & Curtailment Charges).

Insured Journey

Each journey shall be deemed to be a separate insurance, each being subject to the terms, conditions, limitations and warranty contained herein. In respect of all sections other than Section C, the period of cover for each journey shall commence at the time the Insured Person leaves their usual place of residence, in the Republic of Ireland, at the commencement of their journey for the purpose of travel outside the Republic of Ireland and shall terminate on return to their usual place of residence, in the Republic of Ireland, on completion of the journey. For the purpose of Section C, the period of cover shall start from the time of booking the journey. In no case shall an Insured Journey exceed 120 days unless as a result of a mishap beyond the control of the Insured Person, in which event this certificate of insurance will remain in force until return but not exceeding a further 21 days. No individual journey may last longer than 120 days and journeys which exceed 120 days in duration will invalidate cover from the time of booking the journey.

Insured Person

 - ii. the radioactive toxic explosive or other hazardous properties of any nuclear assembly or nuclear components thereof.
- c. Loss, destruction or damage directly occasioned by pressure waves caused by aircraft and other aerial devices travelling at sonic or supersonic speeds.
- d. Any claim arising directly or indirectly out of financial incapacity or disinclination to travel.
- e. Any claim directly or indirectly occasioned by, happening through or in consequence of aviation, other than as a fare-paying passenger in a properly licensed multi-engined, passenger carrying aircraft, flown by a properly licensed crew and operated for the transportation of passengers.
- f. Any claims where the Insured Journey has exceeded 120 days in duration.

- g. Any claim resulting from the tour operator, airline or any other company, firm or person becoming insolvent, or being unable or unwilling to fulfil any part of their obligation to the Insured Person.
- h. Any indirect losses, costs, charges or expenses (meaning losses, costs, charges or expenses which are not listed under sections A to G).
- i. Any claim resulting from the Insured Person travelling to a country where the Department of Foreign Affairs have advised against all but essential travel.
- j. Any claim arising under this insurance if you are on any official government or police database of suspected or actual terrorists, members of terrorist organisations, drug traffickers or illegal suppliers of nuclear, chemical or biological weapons.

Cover

Section A – Personal Accident

In the event of an Accident causing Bodily Injury to an Insured Person during an Insured Journey which results in death or Permanent Disablement, the Insurer will pay to that Insured Person or to their executors, administrators or assignees the amount(s) set out as follows:

The following covers apply to Bodily Injury sustained only whilst on an Insured Journey outside of the Republic of Ireland.

Schedule		Sum Insured
(a)	Accidental death	€5,000
(b)	Permanent total loss of sight of one or both eyes	€5,000
(c)	Loss of Limbs (one or more)	€5,000
(d)	Permanent Total Disablement other than loss of sight of one or both eyes or Loss of Limbs (one or more)	€5,000

Disappearance

It is agreed that subject to all the terms, limitations, conditions and exclusions of the certificate of insurance except as specifically provided herein, if the Insured Person disappears during the Insured Journey and their body is not found within 90 days after their disappearance and sufficient evidence is produced satisfactory to the Insurer that leads them to the conclusion that they sustained Bodily Injury and that such injury caused their death. The Insurer shall pay the death benefit under the certificate of insurance provided that the person or persons to whom such sum is paid shall sign an undertaking to refund such sum to the Insurer if the Insured Person is subsequently found to be living.

Section B – Medical & Other Expenses

The Insurer will indemnify an Insured Person, during an Insured Journey, in respect of:

1. The cost of reasonable medical, surgical or hospital treatment (including emergency dental treatment for the immediate relief of pain only) necessarily incurred during the Period of Insurance (as defined) whilst outside the Republic of Ireland. The Insurer reserves the right to repatriate when in the opinion of a qualified doctor and the Insurers' medical advisers the Insured Person is fit to travel.
2. The cost of transporting the remains of an Insured Person to their usual place of residence in the Republic of Ireland or the cost of a funeral in the country where death occurs outside the Republic of Ireland.
3. The cost of return to the Republic of Ireland of an injured or sick Insured Person by air ambulance where in the opinion of the Insurers' medical advisers such repatriation is medically necessary.

4. The reasonable additional cost of continued occupation of accommodation and additional expenses in returning to the Insured Person's place of residence in the Republic of Ireland (including the cost of accommodation and flights of one relative or friend required on medical advice to travel to, remain with or accompany an Insured Person) necessarily incurred and resulting from:
 - a. the Bodily Injury to, or illness or death of the Insured Person;
 - b. the Bodily Injury to, or illness or death of the parent, parent-in-law, spouse/Partner, child, sister, brother, fiancé(e) or close business associate of an Insured Person whether travelling with an Insured Person or not.
5. In addition to the hospital charges payable under this Section, the Insurer will pay to the Insured Person a benefit of €130 per complete day (up to a maximum of €1,300) in the event that the Insured Person is admitted to a hospital outside the Republic of Ireland as an inpatient due to Bodily Injury or sickness. This benefit is not subject to an excess.

The maximum indemnity under Section B is €1,000,000. In the event of an Insured Person being admitted to hospital, the AIG Assistance Services 24 hour emergency helpline must be advised immediately as failure to do so may invalidate a claim. (see Duties required of the Insured Person, Condition 3 on Page 24).

Section C – Cancellation & Curtailment Charges

The Insurer will indemnify an Insured Person in respect of travel and accommodation expenses paid or contracted to be paid by an Insured Person in respect of their own Insured Journey and not recoverable i.e. including forfeited deposits where the Insured Journey is necessarily cancelled or Curtailed as a result of:

- a. death, injury or illness of an Insured Person;
- b. death, injury or illness of the spouse/Partner, father, mother, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother, sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, child, fiancé(e), close business associate of an Insured Person or person with whom an Insured Person has arranged to travel;
- c. compulsory quarantine, jury service or witness call in a court of the Republic of Ireland of an Insured Person;
- d. redundancy of an Insured Person commencing after the date an Insured Journey is booked and qualifying for payment under the current redundancy payment laws;
- e. fire at the residence of the Insured Person rendering it uninhabitable 10 days or less before departure
- f. if after the time the Insured Person books their trip, the Department of Foreign Affairs advises against all but essential travel to their intended destination.

The maximum indemnity under Section C is €1,000 for each Insured Person.

Section D1 – Personal Effects and Baggage

The Insurer will indemnify an Insured Person in respect of loss or damage to personal effects and baggage owned by an Insured Person, during an Insured Journey, up to a maximum of €150 with a limit of €100 for any one item, pair or set. Provided always that in the event of the theft, this is reported to the police or other appropriate authority as soon as is practicable.

Section D2 – Passport and Travel Documents

What you are covered for.

We will pay up to €150 for the cost of replacing the following items belonging to you if they are lost, stolen or damaged during your trip:

- ▶ Passport;
- ▶ Travel and admission tickets; and
- ▶ Visas.

Please note: The cost of replacing your passport includes the necessary and reasonable costs you pay overseas associated with getting a replacement passport to allow you to return back to the Republic of Ireland (this would include travel costs to the local Embassy as well as the cost of the emergency passport itself). A claim for the lost or stolen passport would be calculated according to its expiry date – depending upon how many years there were left to run on the original passport, an unused pro-rata refund would be made of its original value.

Section E – Missed Departure

What you are covered for.

We will pay up to €200 for the reasonable extra costs of travel and accommodation you need to arrive at your booked holiday destination if you cannot reach the final international departure point on the outward or return journey from or to the Republic of Ireland because:

- ▶ Public Transport services (please refer to the definition of ‘Public Transport’ on page 10) fail due to poor weather conditions, a strike, industrial action or mechanical breakdown; or
- ▶ the vehicle in which you are travelling is directly involved in an accident or suffers a mechanical breakdown (this would not include your vehicle running out of fuel, oil or water or suffering a flat tyre, puncture or flat battery); or

- ▶ road traffic congestion delays you by more than 60 minutes; or
- ▶ you miss a flight connection due to the airline with whom you are booked to travel being unable to deliver you in sufficient time to your connecting airport to meet your connecting flight due to poor weather conditions, a strike, industrial action or mechanical breakdown.

Section F – Personal Liability

The Insurer will indemnify the Insured Person in respect of legal liability to the public for injury to persons (not a member of the Insured Person's family or household) and / or damage to property (excluding the Insured Person's own, or that of members of their family or household) up to a limit of €500,000 any one accident or series of accidents and in all (including legal expenses) arising from accidents occurring in connection with the Insured Journey during the Period of Insurance, but excluding liabilities arising out of the ownership or use of any horse-drawn or mechanically propelled vehicle, waterborne craft or aircraft, lands, buildings and excluding professional and contractual liability to employees. No liability shall be admitted and no admission, arrangement, offer, promise or payment shall be made by the Insured Person without the written consent of the Insurer, who shall be entitled, if they so desire, to take over and conduct in the name of the Insured Person their defence of any claim or to prosecute in their name for their own benefit any claims for indemnity or damages or otherwise against any third party, and shall have full discretion in the conduct of any negotiations or proceedings or the settlement of any claim and the Insured Person shall, whenever possible, give all such information and assistance as the Insurer may require.

Section G – Legal Expenses

The Insurer will indemnify an Insured Person in respect of legal costs and expenses incurred by the Insured Person in the pursuit of legal proceedings for compensation and / or damages directly arising from or out of injury to or death of the Insured Person during the Insured Journey up to €5,000 provided always that the Insurer will have complete control over the legal proceedings, selection, appointment and control of lawyers. The Insurer shall only be liable to pay legal expenses incurred with their written consent and shall reserve the right to withdraw at any stage and thereafter they shall not be liable for any further expenses. The Insurer shall be entitled to recover any expenses that the Insured Person subsequently recovers from the third party.

Exclusions applying to Sections A, B, and C

The Insurer shall not be liable for losses:

- a. arising from any Pre-existing Medical Condition as outlined in this document;
- b. if at the time of booking the Insured Journey, the person whose condition gives rise to a claim is either:
 - i. on a hospital waiting list for treatment or investigation or awaiting the results of medical tests, or
 - ii. travelling contrary to medical advice or specifically to obtain medical treatment, or
 - iii. expected to give birth during the trip or within two months of date arriving home, or
 - iv. requires medication or treatment which they know, at the start of the Insured Journey, will be needed while outside the Republic of Ireland.
- c. whilst engaged or taking part in Military, Air Force or Naval Service or Operations (other than reserve or volunteer training);

- d. directly or indirectly caused or contributed to by intentional self-injury, suicide or attempted suicide, provoked assault, duelling or fighting (except in bona fide self-defence) or from the Insured Person's own criminal act, or whilst engaged or taking part in civil commotions or riots of any kind;
- e. expenses incurred more than 90 days after the expiry of the Period of Insurance;
- f. occasioned by or occurring whilst the Insured Person is in a state of insanity (temporary or otherwise);
- g. occasioned by or occurring whilst engaged or taking part in aeronautics or aviation, other than as a fare-paying passenger;
- h. occasioned by or occurring whilst riding or driving in any kind of race;
- i. occasioned by or occurring whilst engaged or taking part in mountaineering or rock climbing (normally involving the use of ropes and/or guides);
- j. consequent upon the Insured Person being under the influence of alcohol, or drug addiction;
- k. travelling against the advice of a qualified medical practitioner, travelling for the purpose of obtaining treatment or travelling after a terminal prognosis has been made;
- l. expenses which would normally be incurred as a result of pregnancy within 2 months of expected date of birth or childbirth;
- m. related to cancelling or cutting short the Insured Journey because of a medical condition or any illness which the Insured Person knew about or should have known about before booking the Insured Journey. This applies to the Insured Person, their spouse/Partner, father, mother, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother, sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, child, fiancé(e), a person the Insured Person is travelling with or any person the Insured Person was depending on for the Insured Journey;

- n. emergency medical or in hospital medical treatment, or the cost of returning home early, not approved in advance by AIG Assistance Services;
- o. The first €70 of each claim (this excess does not apply to claims under Section A) for each Insured Person.

Exclusions applying to Section D1 and D2

The Insurer shall not be liable for:

- a. damage due to moth, vermin, wear, tear and gradual deterioration;
- b. loss of Money;
- c. losses arising from confiscation or detention by customs or other officials;
- d. property otherwise insured;
- e. the first €70 of each claim for each Insured Person;
- f. any luggage lost whilst in the custody of an airline or other carrier unless such loss is reported to the airline or other carrier within 24 hours and a Property Irregularity Report obtained;
- g. Any loss or theft of an Insured Person's passport which they do not report to their consular representative in their country of residence within 24 hours of discovery of the incident and obtain a written report;

- h. any item, set or pair worth more than €100 which you have not got an original receipt or insurance valuation for before the loss; or
- i. losses not reported to the police or appropriate authority and a written report obtained.

Exclusions applying to Section E

What you are not covered for.

- a. The excess of €70 for each Insured Person and for each incident.
- b. Any claims where you have not allowed enough time to reach your final booked international departure point at or before the recommended time.
- c. Any claims where you have not obtained written confirmation from the appropriate transport company or authority stating the reason for the delay and how long the delay lasted.
- d. Any claims relating to your own vehicle suffering a mechanical breakdown if you are unable to provide evidence that the vehicle was properly serviced and maintained and that any recovery or repair was made by a recognised breakdown organisation.

Exclusions applying to Section F

The Insurer shall not be liable for:

- a. injury to any person who is under a contract of service or apprenticeship with the Insured Person when such injury arises out of and in the course of their employment by the Insured Person;
- b. loss or damage to property belonging to or held in trust by or in the custody or control of the Insured Person;

- c. injury loss or damage caused directly or indirectly by or through or in connection with any mechanically propelled vehicle, aircraft or watercraft when the Insured Person is the owner, driver or pilot thereof, or if the person having it in their custody or control or such pilot or person is the servant or agent of the Insured Person;
- d. injury loss or damage arising directly or indirectly in connection with:
 - i. the ownership possession or occupation of land or buildings (other than the Insured Person's private dwelling house) immobile property or caravans;
 - ii. any wilful or malicious act; or
 - iii. the carrying on of any trade business or profession
- e. any liability attaching to the Insured Person by reason of an express term of any contract unless such liability would have attached to the Insured Person notwithstanding such a term;
- f. any legal liability of whatsoever nature directly or indirectly caused by or contributed to by or arising from:
 - i. ionising radiations or contamination by radioactivity from any nuclear fuel or from any nuclear waste from the combustion of nuclear fuel; or
 - ii. the radioactive toxic explosive or other hazardous properties of any nuclear assembly or nuclear components thereof.
- g. any consequence of declared or undeclared War or any act thereof;
- h. any legal liability for which indemnity is provided under any other contract of insurance in the name of the Insured Person; or

- i. injury to members of the Insured Person's family.

Exclusions applying to Section G

The Insurer shall not be liable for:

- a. costs or expenses incurred for any claim brought against a tour operator, travel agent, carrier and insurers.
- b. costs or expenses incurred prior to obtaining written consent from the Insurer.
- c. fines or other penalties imposed by a court of criminal jurisdiction.
- d. any claim reported more than 180 days after the commencement of the incident giving rise to such claim.
- e. legal expenses incurred in the defence against any civil claim or legal proceedings made or brought against the Insured Person.

Conditions relating to submission of claims

Claims Notification

1. The Insured Person must advise AIG Claims Services of any claim within 31 days of the Insured Journey ending. If the Insured Person does not, the Insurer may not be able to pay the claim. If the Insured Person needs to make a claim, they should write with a brief description of the claim or phone:

AIG Claims Services,
Sedgwick Ireland Travel Claims,
Merrion Hall,
Strand Road,
Dublin 4
Telephone 00 353 1 261 1540

AIG Claims Services is administered by Sedgwick Ireland Travel Claims. Sedgwick Ireland Travel Claims are part of Sedgwick Outsource Services Ireland Limited who are chartered loss adjusters and provide travel insurance claims administration services on behalf of AIG Europe S.A. Sedgwick Outsource Services Ireland Limited are regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland in respect of insurance mediation business. Their offices are open every weekday from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. and will send the Insured Person a claim form as soon as the Insured Person tells them about the claim. Claim forms are also available on www.osg.ie/resources/claim-forms/

2. All certificates, information and evidence required by the Insurer shall be furnished at the expense of the Insured Person or their legal personal representatives and shall be in such form and of such nature as the Insurer may prescribe. The Insured Person shall as often as required submit to medical examination on behalf of the Insurer at their own expense and in the event of death of an Insured Person, the Insurer shall be entitled to have a post mortem examination at their own expense. Any items which become the subject of a claim for damage shall be retained for the Insurer's inspection and shall be forwarded to their agents upon request at the expense of the Insured Person or their legal personal representatives. All such items shall become the property of the Insurer following final settlement of the claim.

Duties required of the Insured Person

3. It is a condition precedent to any payment under Section B of this certificate of insurance that if an Insured Person is admitted to hospital,

AIG Assistance Services 24 hour emergency helpline is notified as soon as possible, but in any event within 48 hours or within a reasonable period of time as the Insurer may at their absolute discretion determine. Failure to do so may invalidate an Insured Person's claim.

4. The Insured Person shall observe due care and control of their property at all times.
5. The Insured Person shall take all practicable steps to recover any articles lost or stolen.
6. In the event of any occurrence which may give rise to a claim under the certificate of insurance the Insured Person shall take all reasonable steps to avoid or minimise any loss arising out of such claim.
7. The due observance and fulfilment of the terms, provisions, conditions and endorsements of the certificate of insurance insofar as they relate to anything to be done or complied with by the Insured Person shall be conditions precedent to any liability of the Insurer to make any payment under the certificate of insurance.
8. Fraud, mis-statement or concealment made for and on behalf of the Insured Person prior to or when effecting cover under the certificate of insurance or any fraudulent claim made hereunder by an Insured Person shall render this insurance null and void and all claims hereunder shall be forfeited.

Special condition applicable to Section F

9. The Insured Person shall on the happening of any accident give immediate notice in writing to AIG Claims Services, Sedgwick Ireland Travel Claims, Merrion Hall, Strand Road, Dublin 4 and shall send them immediately any writ, summons or other legal process and shall give all necessary information and assistance to enable them to negotiate the claim or to institute proceedings. The Insured Person shall not negotiate, pay, settle, admit or repudiate any claim without the written consent of AIG Claims Services.

Relating to settlement of claims

10. If at the time of any loss or damage insured by Sections B, C, D1, D2, E, F or G there shall be any other insurance covering such loss or damage or any part thereof the Insurer shall be able under the certificate of insurance to seek a contribution from such other insurance for loss or damage.
11. The Insurer may at any time at their own expense and without prejudice to any question between the Insurer and the Insured Person take proceedings in the name of the Insured Person to obtain compensation or secure an indemnity from any third party in respect of any loss or damage insured by the certificate of insurance.
12. The Insurer may at their option discharge any liability under the certificate of insurance by replacing or repairing any article or articles lost or damaged.
13. This insurance provided by the certificate of insurance is non-transferable.
14. All claims arising under the certificate of insurance shall be governed by the laws of the Republic of Ireland, whose courts shall have sole jurisdiction in any dispute arising hereunder.
